

PROMOTING FREE EXPRESSION IN SOUTHERN AFRICA

MISA MALAWI MEMBERSHIP

As a MISA Malawi member, you help to build the strength and legitimacy we need to continue fighting for media freedom and freedom of expression in our country.

Who can become a MISA Malawi member?

Members are divided into three categories:

Individual members

All journalists and media practitioners as well as those with an interest in media issues can be members. Journalism and media studies students are able to become student members by getting their membership application endorsed by their institution. Politicians and members of the police, military and secret services are prohibited from becoming members.

Fee: MK 15,000

Early fee (January and February): MK 10,000

Institutional members

Media houses such as radio stations, newspapers and online publishers can become institutional members, however state-owned media houses are not eligible. Employees of state-owned media can join as individual members.

Fee: MK 225,000

Early fee (January and February): MK 150,000

Associate members

Media training institutions, journalists' associations and organisations sharing MISA Malawi's values can become associate members.
